This does NOT work. Her summaries of his statements will not be particularly helpful in moving our case forward, particularly at $575.00 per hour.

Please realize that the FBI 302 reports simply memorialize statements previously made by Mr. Shapiro to the government during the course of debriefings for same. And, of the three (3) debriefings with the government, I was the attorney for two (2), however, I have an FBI 302 report memorializing Mr. Shapiro's statements to the government the first time he met with them with his former counsel, Guy Lewis, from Coconut Grove, Florida.

What I am prepared to do is review the reports and compile a summary of what Mr. Shapiro has relayed to the government and which is memorialized in an FBI 302 report as it concerns information about college sports and less than ethical conduct on the part of any player, or information about payments made by Mr. Shapiro to any of the players or on their behalf. Rather than paying a document fee, I can bill the NCAA an hourly rate for the time expended on preparing the formal summaries. I can also have the bankruptcy trustee forward any and all information they have regarding any payments made to either coaches or college football players, as well as any and all formal statements made to them by Mr. Shapiro regarding any college football players, etc. I believe this is the best way to go for now, as I suspect the government's various ongoing investigations will not be complete before you need to utilize the information contained within the FBI 302 reports. I will also attest to the summaries as being true and correct summaries of the information Mr. Shapiro provided regarding professional athletes and college sports, etc,. at the end of the summaries.

If this works for you let me know. My hourly rate is $575.00 an hour and I will be more than happy to forward a retainer agreement setting forth the above in a more formal retainer agreement between myself and the NCAA.

Thank you for your time and anticipated cooperation in this matter. Should you have any additional questions or comments, please feel free to contact my office at your earliest convenience. Looking forward to your response, I am,

Very truly yours,

Maria Elena Perez, Esq.

First and foremost, I hope this email communication finds you well. Second, I have conferred with the Assistant United States Attorney's handling Mr. Shapiro's criminal case regarding the dissemination of the FBI 302 reports, and the government has asked that I not disseminate those reports at this time, as there is a lot of sensitive information in said reports regarding ongoing criminal investigations that can be negatively effected at this time. However, I may be able to review said reports and extract the information regarding any reported NCAA violations or the like.

Thank you for your time and anticipated cooperation in this matter. Should you have any additional questions or comments, please feel free to contact my office at your convenience. I can also be reached on my cellular at: [redacted] Looking forward to your response, I am,
