Ameen reported that he and Rich and had a lengthy conversation with Maria Perez today. Although the bankruptcy trustee is not interested in deposing Sanchez, Allen or Michael Hugyhue, Perez as Shapiro's attorney can do that in the bankruptcy attorney's stead. Ameen said need to figure out costs so that the NCAA can pay for it. Perez agreed to take the NCAA's questions and advised that since the depositions were public, the NCAA could be in attendance. NCAA will have to pay for a transcript. Once we come to a financial agreement, Perez will get the subpoenas served and have the individuals deposed within seven to 10 days. It was felt that Sanchez would not likely to object, that Allen won't have resources to fight the subpoena, but that Hugyhue may fight it.
