Dear Ameen:

First and foremost, I hope this email finds you well. Second, the revenge reporting article put together by Barry Jackson has caused quite a stir in Miami, and now I have all the different local media channels calling me and harassing me. There main concern is your investigation and whether or not Mr. Shapiro's information has been reliable, truthful, and likewise useful in your investigation. I am speaking to no one, but am at the front of the storm. I would very much like to move forward with the additional issues that are pending, including the completion of the outstanding depositions. I have not received any additional checks aside from the check for $1,085.00. I really need to pay the court reporter and I do not know what else to do at this point. I am forwarding my invoice for my time to you tomorrow when I get back into town, as I am currently in Louisville, Kentucky. Hence at this point I need to know where we stand with the remaining invoices. Also, have you had an opportunity to review the Sean Allen deposition, as well as the Michael Huyghue deposition?

Please send me an email as soon as possible, and once you have figured out what is going on. Thank you for your time and anticipated cooperation in this matter. Looking forward to your response, I am,

Very truly yours,

Maria Elena Perez, Esq.
