Subject: NEVIN SHAPIRO UPDATE

First and foremost, I hope this email finds you well. Second, although I obtained the new address for Mr. Mario Sanchez, when my server went out to serve him he found an apartment filled with buckets of paint and it appeared as though the apartment had been recently painted. The process server was subsequently advised Mr. Mario Sanchez had moved out one (1) day earlier and had just finished painting the apartment. Hence I sent another subpoena to the post office and I should have a response with Mr. Mario Sanchez' new address any day now. Third, as it concerns Mr. Leshner, he has been served on multiple occasions and was last served the second week of March, 2012, for a deposition date of April 18th, 2012, however, Mr. Leshner's attorney is not respecting the subpoena, as Mr. Leshner did not appear as required and I am therefore moving forward with a motion to compel.

I apologize for the delay, however, I have been working on Mr. Shapiro's direct appeal, as well as other matters relative to Mr. Shapiro's criminal case. However, I will be forwarding a copy of all the receipts for the costs incurred to date, as well as my bill for the hours expended to date. Moreover, if you recall at the end of December, 2011, I sent you several federal express packages, as well as a copy of the invoice for the costs of those packages. Nevertheless, to date, those have not been paid out. Therefore, I will include the latter in my next invoice.

I will be meeting with Mr. Shapiro on Wednesday, and Thursday, of this week, hence if you need me to relay any information to him, or you wish to inquire about any matter in particular, please send me an email and I will respond forthwith. Additionally, I will be forwarding the remaining invoices next week. Along that same vein, has the $400 plus UPS package that was sent last year been approved as a cost relative to the NCAA investigation? Please let me know. If you recall, you requested Mr. Shapiro to forward some materials relative to the NCAA investigation and he had someone send said documents to you on his behalf and you provided your UPS number, however, it was later declined and billed to the third party, whose credit has now been damaged. Please let me know the status of the latter issue so that I can also include said costs on the next invoice.

Should you have any additional questions or comments, please feel free to contact my office at your earliest convenience. Looking forward to your response, I am,

Very truly yours,

Maria Elena
